*P*ilate said to him, "Then you are a king? Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." (Jn 18: 37)

Our Lady of Medjugorje's
Monthly Message of October 25th, 2021:

Dear children! Return to prayer because who prays is not afraid of the future; who prays is open to life and respects the life of others; who prays, little children, feels the freedom of the children of God and in joy of heart serves for the good for his brother-man. Because God is love and freedom, therefore, little children, when they want to put you in bonds and to use you, it is not from God. Because God loves and gives His peace to every creature; and that is why He sent me to you to help you to grow in holiness. Thank you for having responded to my call.

On the 25th of each month, Our Lady gives a message through the visionary Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti for the villagers in the parish of Medjugorje and for all those who choose to follow her on the path to holiness.

On Life in Heaven

by Michael Brown from spiritdaily.com

To the soul in Heaven, the earth seems like a mere speck next to the vast unending horizons of eternity. "There are ever new feasts which succeed each other without interruption," said Sister O, our pseudonym for a nun who gave Church-approved revelations in the 19th century.

"There is happiness, always new and such, it would seem, as has never been enjoyed. It is a torrent of joy which flows unceasingly over the elect. Heaven is above and beyond all — God: God loved, God relished, God delighted in."

Beautiful are the many descriptions by mystics of the way Mary conducts souls to Heaven. It is said that they look like sparks of ascending radiance.

Mary is the Queen of Heaven and so we must implore her help in getting to that incredible place where sorrows are all forgotten, all anxiety disappears, all sadness is erased. Mystics have described incredible waterfalls and the sparkling gemlike buildings of an eternal city.

As one man who experienced death put it, "all of us are mysteriously connected to each other forever in a universe of such vast beauty that words cannot possibly describe it."

There are those who recount the spectacular valleys, the gardens with flowers that seem to sway with celestial music, the living fountains and the symphony of sounds in a place where the sweetest conceivable music praises God.

In Heaven objects are real and yet unreal, ephemeral and yet more authentic than anything of the earth, filled with people whose love spills upon every new entrant and who seek in every way to help.

Life comes from the water and trees and gardens. Heaven is ornamented with the colors of jewels mined from the empyrean. If you can imagine a place filled with only the best friends you have ever had in your life, filled with those who had loved you sincerely and the most, those who wished you only the best, then multiply that many times and you have the essence of Heaven, which is the essence of love.

Love radiates. Love sings. Love permeates the atmosphere. Love is the atmosphere. Love is God and God is Heaven and those who are in Heaven are there because they have learned to shed their egos and to direct everything from the bottom of their souls to the cause of eternal love.

There's no jealousy in Heaven. There is no wanting attention. There is no envy. Or ego. Or disobedience. There is no wishing ill upon others but instead a perfect congruence — a perfect harmony — and such an immaculate surrounding that anyone with so much as a speck would not want to enter the incredible Kingdom.

"I want each one of you to be happy here on earth and to be with me in Heaven," said the Virgin of Medjugorje. "That is, dear children, the purpose of my coming here and it's my desire. Peace, peace, peace. Only peace. Make your peace with God and among yourselves. For that, it is necessary to believe, to pray, to fast, and to go to Confession. Whoever has done very much evil during his life can go to Heaven if he confesses, is sorry for what he has done, and receives Communion at the end of his life."

Let us also remember that love effaces a multitude of sins. Above all, love. It's a small number who go directly to Heaven but they do so if they have been able to turn into perfect love, faith, and humility. They do so if they have been absolved of all sin. And that again raises the crucial topic of Confession: Invoking the Holy Spirit, we ask God in the name of Jesus to enlighten us as to how and what we should confess, so there is not a speck of unsightliness. When we ask the Holy Spirit to come, He arrives to indicate the hidden corners of our souls and to show us what we in our spiritual blindness can't or don't want to see. Come Holy Spirit! Come and enlighten our souls! Come and lead us to Heaven!

There is no more relevant prayer. Every moment of life on earth is a precious opportunity for attaining Heaven. Every moment is an opportunity for prayer and love.

It's only when our very lives become a prayer that we have unity with Christ and only then do we have the sure route to paradise and its golden gates, its shining cities, its seraphic choirs. Then and only then can we approach the fantastic light, the incredible and infinitely powerful light, the never-ending and never-fully-described Light that is the Vision of God.

From the Diary of Sister Emmanuel

On September 25th, 2021, visionary, Marija, received the monthly message:

"Dear children! Pray, witness and rejoice with me because the Most High continues to send me to lead you on the way of holiness. Be aware, little children, that life is short and eternity is waiting for you to give glory to God with your being, with all the saints. Little children, do not worry about earthly things, but long for Heaven. Heaven will be your goal and joy will begin to reign in your heart. I am with you and bless all of you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call."

A great gift for Mary!

A great gift for Mary! Vicka, the visionary, once told me, "You see, sorella, we love Jesus and Mary so much that we always seek new gifts to give them!"

The month of October is especially dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary, and so I think a beautiful gift has been set aside for her. Here is the story of this gift, and I rejoice at the thought of all the hearts that will be touched by it, both young and old:

A young girl from Canada, a student of mathematics, is doing her best to sincerely follow the school of Mary, with her deeply faithful parents and siblings. Katarina is 20 years old and hopes to marry and start a Christian family. She is very beautiful, the kind of natural beauty that comes from a heart that is simple and pure. Like her parents, she would not miss Sunday Mass or her daily Rosary for all the gold in the world. Of course, such a young girl stands out, and boys are attracted to her beauty.

Often in the evening, she would tell her mother about the events of the day, because they love each other very much and enjoy discussing things that arose for them, both pleasant and unpleasant. We can guess that the mother cares about her daughter's future. Of course, she wants the best for her and prays ardently. Didn't Mary say: "Pray for young people, because they are in a very difficult situation all over the world." The young people of Medjugorje are no exception!

Often, Katarina would return home in the evening with a new story. "Mom, I was invited out on a date by a nice boy. On the first day, we exchanged smiles. On the second day, we had coffee together. On the third day, we had dinner together and went to the movies. Everything seemed to be going well, but at the end of the dinner.... bed! He wants me to go to bed with him! So I ended it".

For Katarina, this scenario happened more than once, because the boys were happy to approach her. Every time, she would wait for the surprise on the 3rd date to see what the boy had in his heart. One day, however, the 3rd date went by, then the 4th and so on, until the 7th date. However, at the dinner on that 7th date, there was a great disappointment for Katarina because, once again... bed! And again, she left. Could there be any boy out there who was not like the others, she wondered? Would she finally find the person who would want to live his faith with her and respect her values? She prayed and did not despair.

One morning in Canada, her mother heard Katarina's alarm clock ring at 5 a.m. She asked her, "Where are you going at this hour?" "Mom, my days are very busy with university studies and work. I have to find time for prayer before starting my day, and for that I only have the first hours of the day!"

One Sunday, in Medjugorje, her sister suggested they both go and pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at the Blue Cross. There, she noticed a boy and felt in her heart that he was hers. But he himself did not see her. The next day, there he was again, they crossed paths and he smiled as he walked by her. Katarina said to herself: "He is surely a passing pilgrim, I will not see him again!" But the next day, not far from the church, he was there, smiled at Katarina and invited her for a cup of coffee. She expected the usual 3rd date syndrome, but against all odds, the days passed by and this boy, Mate (Matthew) happened to have a different kind of conversation.

A friendship started to develop. So, one day Mate asked Katarina, "How can such a pretty woman like you be alone?" Katarina paused, thought for a moment and said, "Do you really want to know why I'm alone?" "Yes, tell me!" "Well, you see, I made a promise to God at a very young age. I asked Him for a Catholic husband who is a true believer, who knows how to respect and love me. And I gave Him my virginity until I got married. I kept my promise."

Faced with such a confidence, Mate remained speechless. Tears began to flow down his face. Katarina saw that he was seized with a deep emotion. After a time of silence, Mate confided his own secret to her: "You know, I too desire the same thing as you, I too have promised God to live in chastity until marriage." Isn't this a beautiful gift for Mary for this month of October, dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary? A true story, the kind that makes her Immaculate Heart jump for joy!

From an Interview with Sr. Emmanuel

Interview by Benedetta Frigerio for "La Nuova Bussola Quotidiana":

Sister Emmanuel, at what point is the spiritual battle?

I am not a prophetess, but I see that at the beginning of the apparitions Our Lady said that Satan will be defeated after the revelation of the secrets. So just look at the reality: let's see what happens in the world, you don't need to have studied much to see that we are at the point where evil is active, even attacks the little ones in schools so that they can not avoid being poisoned: Satanist programs, impurity, pornography. When I was 11 years old all this did not exist. We are facing a dizzying race to evil. This is a very eloquent sign of the level to which the battle has arrived.

But will there be an end?

Our Lady with the visionaries of Medjugorje was clear: she is preparing a new time, a time when, when this wave of evil, darkness and confusion has passed, then the Victory of the Immaculate Heart will come. In this last stretch the war is directed toward the family ...

Don't you think we're in it?

Yes. Every time I read about a new law it is a step towards the destruction of God's plan for mankind. We all suffer from this situation: we are in a full spiritual war between light and darkness. Do you see what happens? Divorces, betrayals, pornography, people live together naturally, but it is a grave sin and yet everyone does it. Adulterers are now normalized and the little ones are martyrs. All this "kills" children, our little ones. But God prepares a New Pentecost.

Please explain...

A New Pentecost of love, the Servant of God, proclaimed by Pope Francis, Marthe Robin, tells us about it. It will not be like the first Pentecost, but it will concern all humanity: the Holy Spirit will descend on us and everyone will be able to see their soul as God sees it, you can also call it an enlightenment of consciences. And this enlightenment will be for everyone and it will be terrible for those who are in sin because they will see with horror what sin will be and will be tempted to despair. Seeing the horror of sin and the consequences of their sin, that sin will be an unbearable suffering, but for those who are touched by God, it will be a wonderful grace. This is why Our Lady has been repeating to us for 40 years: "Go to confession, abandon sin!". Instead, sin has become so widespread that we now think that abortion is a normal thing.

Today all sin becomes law. Yet God is also the Lord of history.

There are people who even without realizing it become the instrument of the devil to trample on the laws of God. I tell you something that happened to me many years ago, in the 90s. I and two sisters of my order were invited to participate in a television program in which homosexuality was discussed. With us there was a very aggressive politician, against the Church and against morality. We explained the reasons for the faith and when we went out I couldn't believe my eyes. That man approached us and looking into our eyes said: "I thank you, because the three of you were the only ones who told the truth".

But excuse me, why then...?

That's what I asked him: "Why then did you attack us so virulently?" "Sister," he told me, "I have to play a role. Millions of people look at me and I had to say those things. But in my heart I know that the truth is on your side."

Today it is worse: with the pretense of dialogue, certain truths do not seem to want to be said even by Catholics anymore.

Because we got the concept of dialogue wrong. We dialogue in a human way, too human, but in this way we waste time and play into the hands of the enemy. Prayer is much more effective. When I see all these energies put into this false dialogue I invite you to pray more: because prayer is much more effective, with it we have the daily nourishment of the Word of God that allows us to shed light and makes us discover God's plan, but if I go out into the street and begin to accept a dialogue what can people answer me about God's plan? Nothing. So, I say: let us go to our brothers and sisters to bear witness, to show the love we have for them, but not to debate with them.

In Medjugorje, Our Lady meets a wounded and searching humanity. What do you see every day?

I see burdens to bear, requests, supplications. The first time they come to ask, but the second time they come back to pray. This is very nice. The adoration that takes place three days a week radiates true love and mercy. It feeds us and the faithful are attracted like bees to honey.

Our Lady has insisted a lot on the sacrificial aspect of the Mass.

Today people do not know what the Mass is. But in this way it is impossible to enter into the mystery of God. It is the greatest sacrifice and it is rejected. But even if you reject it, the reality remains. If I do not believe, the problem is mine, not of the Holy Mass.

If you had to explain to someone who does not believe who Our Lady is, what would you say?

A mother. A mother who loves so much. Many today are wounded by the absence of their mother, by the absence of love. Many children suffer because they do not have their mother at home. A child to feel good in the world must have his mother, her loving look. Many go into crisis because they do not feel loved by the mother.

Medjugorje, Our Lady and the Spiritual Battle

by Father Giulio Maria Scozzaro from papaboys.org

To better understand our Lady's presence in Medjugorje, it is necessary to meditate on this message of April 14, 1982:

"You must know that Satan exists. One day he appeared before the throne of God and asked permission to tempt the Church for a time with the intention of destroying it. God allowed Satan to test the Church for a century but added: You will not destroy it! This century in which you live is under the power of Satan, but when the secrets entrusted to you are realized, his power will be destroyed. Already now he begins to lose his power and therefore has become even more aggressive: he destroys marriages, raises discord even among consecrated souls, causes obsessions, causes murders. Protect yourselves, therefore, by fasting and prayer, especially by community prayer. Bring blessed objects on you and place them in your homes as well. And resume the use of holy water!"

This message contains the reason for Our Lady's insistent presence in Medjugorje: to save humanity from the final attack of Satan. This message explains the ways the devil is unleashed against the Church and against humanity, and also explains the great apocalyptic struggle that has already begun and that we will overcome only if we are united to Our Lady with the Rosary in hand and by consecrating ourselves to her Immaculate Heart.

Do you believe that these are Marian times?

Yes. Our Lady said, "This is my time." And we see it from how she intervenes and from what graces flow in those who follow her.

But God is not on this earth, at least we are told that more and more often. And dialogue with Him must remain confined to the private.

But if I do not grow in faith, I lower all humanity into sin. I think the lack of prayer explains the trap we have fallen into today. If you pray you see the hand of the Lord in everything from food to work, you see Providence everywhere because you are with Him. The heart is part of a dialogue between friends who talk to each other. And this applies to everyone. How many times have I seen people who have converted after 40 years. The Grace of conversion gave them the opportunity to realize how many times the hand of God protected them even when they were far away. Only conversion is able to allow a reorientation of one's life completely, to direct one's life toward God.

But this century has also been called the century without the sacred...

Natuzza Evolo said that. It is because we are too easily satisfied with earthly things. In fact, Our Lady said: "Satan diverts you with materialism, modernism and selfishness, so you think that there is only the earth".

What is the best way to discover the sacred, then?

Prayer and Eucharistic adoration. God fills you and this presence is real, it nourishes you.

The devil was agitated when he did not understand who was the Man who had fasted in the desert for forty days and had never sinned. Even then he was very restless, indeed, he was much more so because he remembered very well the words of condemnation of God in Eden: "I will put enmity between you and the Woman, between your race and her race: She will crush your head and you will strike at her heel!" (Gen 3:15).

The attacks of the devil that Our Lady has described to all and the pitfalls that the devil causes to humanity, has had in these times as a driving force, especially Medjugorje and the devil has understood it well, so much so that after a few years from the beginning of the apparitions, he proposed to God an exchange: he would no longer disturb humanity on condition that Our Lady would no longer appear in Medjugorje.

This proposal made by Satan to God seems a trivial one, but if the very high angelic intelligence of this perfidious being has proposed it, it means that he has sensed very well that Medjugorje is the place of the Marian offensive in the world, to the evil plans of Satan.

This proposal highlights that the apparitions of Medjugorje are the final phase of the defeat of Satan. It highlights the terrible fear that he has towards Our Lady and the very strong spirituality that Medjugorje emanates. It also highlights the horror that Satan feels because he is losing power because of the apparitions of Our Lady at Medjugorje.

Some may wonder: why was the devil from the beginning so afraid of the apparitions of Medjugorje? What did the devil perceive? Perhaps it was because Our Lady in the early years gave almost daily messages and they were all very important teachings and catechesis to encourage growth in holiness. With these apparitions she instructed millions of the faithful but also those with no faith, who had become lost. With these words she came to re-propose the Gospel, she called us to faithfully follow the Words of Jesus. She indicated the Sacraments as the means of sanctification, and spoke very often about the Eucharist and Confession. She invited everyone to attend Sunday Mass. She asked for the birth of prayer groups everywhere and encouraged all to daily recitation of the Rosary as a central part of prayer. She asked for prayers for peace and for the defeat of Satan's plans against mankind.

She reminded the whole world that God exists and that he will give everyone at the end of life heaven or condemnation. She invited forgiveness, Christian love, growth in virtue, a life consistent with the Gospel. She asked for fasting on bread and water on Wednesdays and Fridays. She asked families to live in holiness and in mutual fidelity. She said that television is the medium that Satan uses to corrupt humanity. She spoke of penance to humanity that is preoccupied with comfort and pleasure. She recalled that the only Lord is Jesus, that the true religion is the Christian one even if she considers us all her children. She told each of us that we must devote a few hours every day to prayer and meditation, because we are passing quickly through this earth and we will give an account to God of how we have used our time. In Medjugorje Our Lady came as a teacher to show the whole Church the path of holiness. She comes to speak of Jesus and the Gospel with a clear and unequivocal language, because humanity needs such a good teacher, a Mother Full of grace, an irreplaceable guide at this most critical time. The voice and presence of Our Lady in Medjugorje has attracted over 40 million pilgrims, thousands of priests and religious, and also many Cardinals and Bishops.

Year of St. Joseph

Today, Katarina and Mate are married and have 2 little boys. They form a beautiful Christian family. They simply love each other. As with all young couples, life is not always easy, but they pray the Rosary together every day, they founded their family not on the quicksand of ephemeral passions, but on Christ. Katarina did not compromise with her promise, she trusted in God and his plan of love for her. In the painful hours of loneliness and temptations, in the succession of disappointments, she had the courage to wait for the hour of the visitation. It saved her!

May this amazing testimony touch the hearts of many! The Creator has a plan of peace for each of His children. Trusting Him and surrendering to his Providence is always a source of deep peace. The greatest happiness for a human being is to fulfill God's plan, and with Him, it is never too late. So much suffering and drama would be avoided if our life choices stemmed from daily and trusting prayer, and not from conformity to the surrounding atheist world, which so easily tramples on God's commandments. Fewer divorces, fewer tears, fewer suicides... Being faithful to the evangelical precepts and to God's mercy places us under the divine blessing, which is needed more than ever. One day, seeing the refusal of some of her children to follow Christ, our Lady expressed her concern as follows:

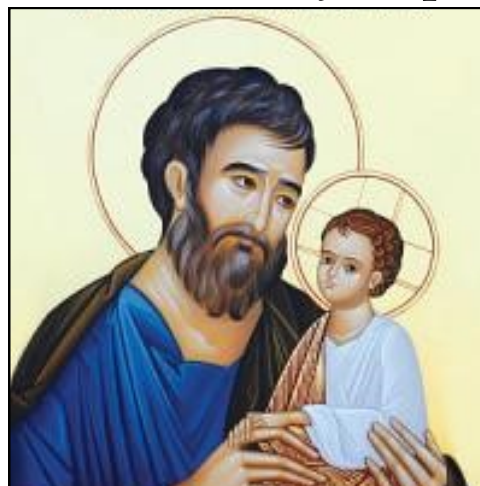

"My children, do you think you can make it without God's blessing?" In these troubled days of great apostasy, may God's blessing rest upon each one of us and sink into our hearts that abundance of peace to which we aspire so much!

Do not forget the rosary!

Do not forget, the Rosary is essential in our spiritual battle! The power of the Rosary lies especially in the contemplation of Jesus and Mary. Every stage of their lives is actualized in our own lives. Everything becomes real! We enter with them in the stable at Bethlehem or in the Temple of Jerusalem, we walk with them on the roads of Galilee, we suffer with them in the screaming crowd of Pilate's palace, we exult with Mary Magdalene before Jesus, the conqueror of death...

By traveling with them in this way, we absorb the graces attached to each mystery, like children fascinated by what they are looking at, and we are transformed by those rays of light that emanate from the Gospel. In the face of such beauties, the evil one flees, he cannot stand the light. The Rosary is therefore a gentle way to get rid of him! "Dear children, keep the Rosary in your hand, as a sign to Satan that you belong to me," Mary tells us.

The miracle of the sun at Fatima

Hail Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted
His only Son;
In you Mary placed her trust;
With you Christ became a man.
Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father
And guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy
and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

Fatima, October 13th, 1917. An extraordinary day! 70,000 people are gathered at the Cova da Iria where the Lady promised the three shepherd children that she would appear. Torrential rain keeps falling, until Lucia asks the crowd to close their umbrellas, and the rain stops! They all pray the Rosary. Mary then appears on the oak tree like the previous times, brighter than ever. Lucia asks, "Who are you and what do you want from me?" The Virgin replies that she is "Our Lady of the Rosary" and that she wants a chapel to be built in her honor in that same place. She advises to constantly recite the Rosary and then concludes: "All must convert, ask forgiveness for their sins and no longer hurt Our Lord." After these words, she opens her hands that reflect off the sun. Then Lucia shouts, "Look at the sun!" and the miracle happens.

Lucia tells what happened: "Unexpectedly and inexplicably, the whole crowd present was then able to look directly at the sun without the risk of burning their eyes or without being in any way inconvenienced. Before such a great miracle, defying all the laws of nature, there was a great silence. Then suddenly, the sun began to tremble with jerky movements. Then it started spinning round at a dizzying speed, throwing sheaves of light of every color of the rainbow. It seemed to approach the earth, in a rapid rotational motion, zigzagging, to the point where the crowd began to scream. Every person present fell on their knees, imploring heaven. Some fainted. Finally, everything stopped, and the sun resumed its normal and natural course. Within a few minutes, the rain-soaked clothes were completely dry." My Portuguese friend's grandmother was there, and she told the whole story: "People thought it was the end of the world and screamed in fear. However, those who prayed regularly remained calm..."

Imagine being St. Catherine of Siena and having to spur the ecclesiastical hierarchies...

I would repeat a phrase that Our Lady said to Bruno Cornacchiola (the seer of the Three Fountains):

"You know Bruno, my priests know many things about me, but they do not know me".

And how do you know Mary?

In prayer. In seminaries one learns theology, but one does not pray, one does not learn devotion to Our Lady, the practice of Eucharistic Adoration, meditation on the mysteries of the Rosary, the things of the heart.

And this has repercussions...?

Certainly. A priest who struggles with confession, it is because he does not listen to human hearts. But if he does not listen to the heart of Jesus, how can he listen to the hearts of his brothers and sisters?

What would you say to the families experiencing this final struggle?

Not to marry because they are in love, but only if they have in common the faith and the intent to live together the divine union. I often tell the bride and groom that they must believe that when they entered the church for the wedding there were two of them, but after the vows, they left the church as three. The problem is that the third, God, who is the true spouse for both of these souls, is not among them. Many young people come to marriage after having had multiple partners.

And today we try to accommodate these disorders. Some argue that now the Church should also bless adulterous relationships.

All the answers are in the Gospel. To the woman at the well Jesus says: "You said well, this man is not your husband." So it is not a blessing from God. Whoever takes another wife is an adulterer, the Word of God cannot be changed. We may not want to listen to it but it remains.

When will we understand that this spiritual war is ending?

When we will finally see consciences enlightened. Then it will be the sign that the Immaculate Heart is about to triumph.

If you would like to be removed from our mailing list, please let us know...

Our primary goal, our main focus, is to bring Jesus Christ to the world and to bring the world to Jesus Christ. To accomplish this task, the MIR Center of Western Colorado was established to provide accurate information about the messages and events originating from Marian apparitions occurring in Medjugorje and elsewhere. We are committed to living and sharing the messages of Medjugorje and helping others to live the messages as well. By living the messages of Medjugorje, which are in essence the message of the Gospel, we hope to spread peace into our families, into our communities, and into our world. As a nonprofit organization, we intend to use any and all funds raised or donations received to aid in spreading the messages of Our Lady to all who will listen. With regard to the apparitions occurring in the world today we humbly submit to the final authority of the Catholic Church.
