

Share the Messages

OUR LADY'S MONTHLY MESSENGER

THE MIR CENTER OF WESTERN COLORADO

Check out our website at Medjugorjedaily.com

Vol. 25, No. 3

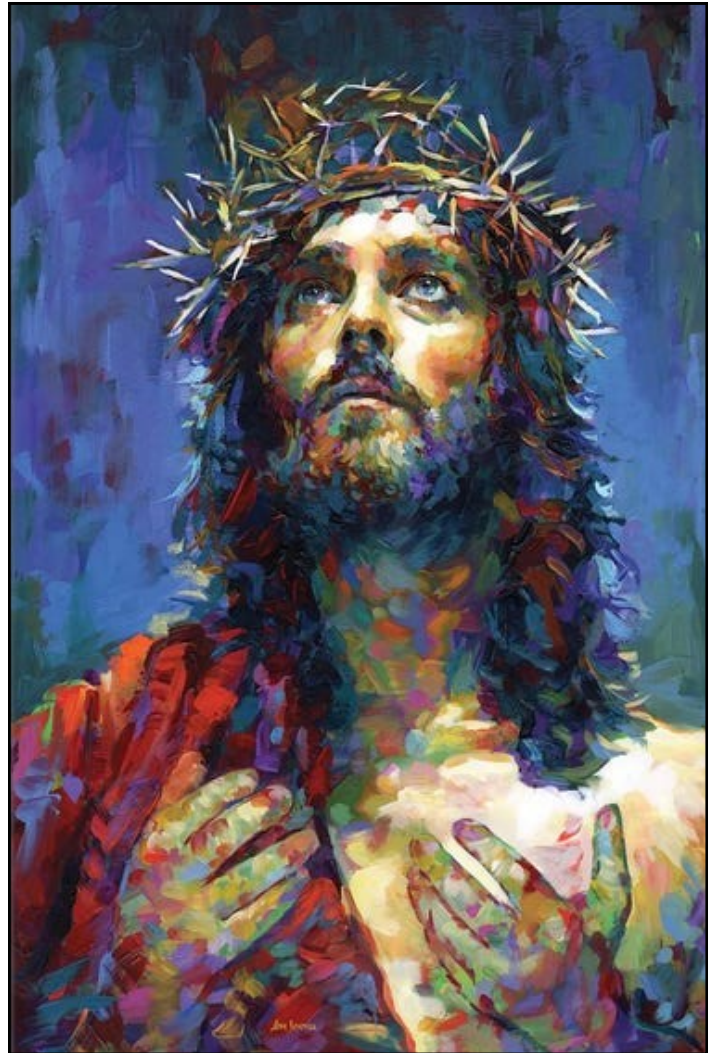

March, 2021

I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this? (Jn 11: 25-26)

Our Lady of Medjugorje's Monthly Message of February 25th, 2021:

Dear children! God has permitted me to be with you also today, to call you to prayer and fasting. Live this time of grace and be witnesses of hope, because I repeat to you, little children, that with prayer and fasting also wars can be suppressed. Little children, believe and live this time of grace in faith and with faith; and my Immaculate Heart does not leave any of you in peacelessness if you have recourse to me. I intercede for you before the Most High and I pray for peace in your hearts and for hope for the future. Thank you for having responded to my call.

On the 25th of each month, Our Lady gives a message through the visionary Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti for the villagers in the parish of Medjugorje and for all those who choose to follow her on the path to holiness.

Crowned with thorns

Inside:

Fr. Petar on the secrets - pg. 2

Ivan at Medjugorje Congress - pg. 4

Sr. Lucia on the Consecration - pg. 5

Fr. Petar on the Secrets

from papaboys.com

Father Livy: You're going to reveal all ten secrets, how? In which of the 10 secrets is contained the visible and lasting sign that Our Lady has promised to leave?

Father Petar Ljubicic: When the time comes to reveal the first secret, Mirjana will deliver to me ten days before something like a parchment. Our Lady gave it to her to remember when every secret would happen. All secrets are written on it, but I will only be able to read and reveal the first secret. At that moment, I will only be able to see that secret and not the others. This will happen for each secret.

Then I will have to fast and prepare for seven consecutive days and then, three days before, I will be able to reveal what exactly and where it will happen, at what precise time and minute and how long what is contained in that secret will last. Mirjana said the first two secrets are related to Medjugorje and will be admonitions and recommendations. When those two secrets are revealed, it will be clear to everyone that the visionaries have told the truth and that the apparitions of Our Lady at Medjugorje are authentic.

The third secret will be the visible sign on the hill of the apparitions at Podbrdo. This sign will be a great joy for those who have welcomed these apparitions as a gift from heaven and the Queen of Peace. This sign will be precise so that many may convert and return to God. We must never forget that now is the time to pray, to begin a journey of conversion, to follow God and to decide for Him, for after that it may be too late.

Father Petar, the visionary Mirjana chose you to reveal the secrets that Our Lady entrusted to her. Do you feel honored or are you afraid of it?

When I heard that evening about 25 years ago in Medjugorje that Mirjana had chosen me to reveal the secrets, at first I believed it was a joke. I said it was a very serious thing that we didn't usually joke about. But then I kept thinking about it. I was wondering: Can it really be true? All this did not leave me indifferent. It was strange for me to imagine why Mirjana should choose me. I considered it a great honor, but also a great responsibility. I can't explain why, but I wasn't afraid. When I met Mirjana, she asked me: "Do you know that when the time comes, you will reveal the secrets?" A thought crossed my mind: "But is it possible?" I find it difficult to find the right words to express my feelings at that moment. I only know that I felt a sense of happiness and security.

What can you tell us about the secrets and their content? What message do they contain? When will they be revealed?

The secrets, as the word says, are secret. We know nothing about their content. It can only be said that the secrets concern events that will happen in a certain place and at a certain time. But what will happen, we don't know. So we shouldn't even speculate about this. We should consider the existence of these secrets as a help for us, so that we take seriously the life that God has given us and exploit the time for our salvation and for the salvation of our soul. This means for us to live in such a way that we can be accountable to God at any time. If we live like this, we are always ready to meet God and to go before Him. This is why we must not even be afraid of revealing the secrets and it is not necessary to ask ourselves about the "when".

What will happen, according to you, after the disclosure of the first three secrets? What will come of it for Medjugorje?

As I have already said, these apparitions help us to understand that every moment of our life is important. We must live it in total dedication to God and bless it with our prayer. This means always choosing God. Thus we will carry the burden of life more easily. I think the revelation of secrets will help us all become more serious and more aware of our responsibilities. Surely there will be exceptional signs, extraordinary, and great conversions. All the conversions and all the body and spiritual healings that have taken place up to now are proof that Heaven has opened up on Medjugorje and the Queen of Peace has come to us. The revelation of secrets will be a great comfort and a great joy. Above all, those who believed and strived to live according to the Gospel of Jesus Christ will be happy. It is a fact that every year thousands and thousands of pilgrims come to Medjugorje. When the disclosure of the secrets begins, surely more people will come; probably also those that have so far shown no interest. In any case, the future of Medjugorje will be positive. It will become even more a spiritual magnet.

Shocking conversions and extraordinary healings are proof of the authenticity of the apparitions. Will the revelation of secrets be decisive for ecclesiastical recognition?

(Fr. Petar continued on page 6)

Travel to Medjugorje May Pilgrimage

Catholic Journeys invites you to celebrate Pentecost Sunday in Medjugorje. From May 17th to May 25th.

Price from Denver is $2850.00

Includes air fare, transportation, room and meals.

Please contact Barbara Moulds at 719-852-2807 or email bjmoulds@msn.com for further information. Fr. Carl Wertin will be the spiritual director.

From the Diary of Sister Emmanuel

www.childrenofmedjugorje.com

On January 25th, 2020, the visionary Marija Pavlovic Lunetti received the following monthly message:

"Dear children! I am calling you at this time to prayer, fasting and renunciation, that you may be stronger in faith. This is a time of awakening and of giving birth. As nature which gives itself, you also, little children, ponder how much you have received. Be joyful bearers of peace and love that it may be good for you on earth. Yearn for Heaven; and in Heaven there is no sorrow or hatred. That is why, little children, decide anew for conversion and let holiness begin to reign in your life. Thank you for having responded to my call."

The unprecedented event of August 5, 1984

The Church celebrates the Nativity of the Blessed Mother on September 8. This is a liturgical date. However, in 1984, the Queen of Peace informed Vicka, Marija and Jelena that the date of her birth was August 5, and that on that day she would be 2,000 years old. What an exceptional birthday! She added, "On this day, the priests who confess will have great joy." During the three days leading up to this anniversary, the villagers prepared for the event with fasting and continuous prayer.

On the night before August 5, so on August 4, Jelena Vasilj, was holding the usual evening of prayer with her prayer group. Suddenly, in the middle of the Lord's Prayer, she was abruptly interrupted by a strange phenomenon in her throat, as if someone wanted to prevent her from continuing. It was then that she had the vision of Satan rolling on the ground with rage. Furious, he asked Jelena to tell "her" (the Blessed Mother) not to bless the world the next day. Jelena, who was already well-trained in spiritual warfare against the enemy, was careful not to enter into dialogue with him, and simply ignored his request. Satan eventually withdrew and Jelena resumed her prayer in peace.

It was then that she had the vision of Mary, more radiant than ever, and she said to Jelena with a smile: "Satan knows why he is asking for this! He knows that tomorrow (August 5th), the Most High has allowed me to bless the world with my solemn blessing, and he knows that on that day he will be bound and will not be able to act!"

Sister Emmanuel

Then came D-Day! According to a few witnesses whom I met, there were about 70 priests present in the village and a few thousand people: locals and pilgrims. Without talking to each other, as if driven by an irresistible inner force, they all lined up to go to confession. The priests at the time sat outdoors on chairs in the great meadow around the church, and people were confessing while kneeling down on the ground. The priests dispensed the sacrament of confession without ceasing, and there were many conversions. The remarkable event is that not only did everyone stand in line to receive the sacrament, but above all... everyone was weeping! Never seen before! They were weeping over their sins, of course, but what brought them tears was to feel Jesus' infinite love for them. Tears of love and true contrition! Tears of happiness to know themselves so loved and so deeply forgiven. Even the priests wept, to the point where one of them said to me: "Our stoles were drenched in tears! We were in tears at all those people who came to confess. Grace was tangible!"

An Italian friend who was present that day said to me, "You cannot imagine the peace that came down upon us from heaven! We could touch it! I had never experienced this before, it was like heaven on earth!" Some tourists, who came on holiday to the Adriatic coast to enjoy the beach, felt moved to go to Medjugorje, and the first thing they did when they arrived was to expand the queues in front of the priests. Many of them had long since stopped receiving the sacraments. One can imagine the joy of the Heavenly Father to be able to offer his Daughter Mary this beautiful harvest of souls as a birthday present! Mary comes to bring us closer to the Heart of God and to reconcile us with Him. That day, she saw thousands of her children running toward Him, and so many conversions...

That evening, during her apparition at 6:40 p.m., she said to the visionaries these deeply moving words:

(Sister Emmanuel continued on page 6)

Ivan's Comments at the Medjugorje Congress

By Elisa Pallotta from La Lucia di Maria

During the Medjugorje congress, in preparation for the 40th anniversary of the apparitions, the seer Ivan highlights the essence of the invitation of the Queen of Peace, and a risk we run today.

"Dear priests and friends in Christ, I would like to greet you all and I would like to address all of you in a few words to send you a message for this great day. In fact, the topic of the congress at this moment cannot be more effective and cannot be more proactive in the theme of the new evangelization for the world, for the family, for the Church, for the young.

Our Lady wants exactly this: she began this evangelization forty years ago, giving us her messages through which she wants to lead us to Jesus. Her words are words of the Gospel that we must welcome because Our Lady, by giving messages in a simple way, actually quotes the message of the Gospel, so that we can better understand and live it.

At the beginning of the apparitions themselves, Our Lady introduces herself, and when we asked her who she was and what her name was and she replied with these warm words: "I am the Queen of Peace. Dear children: Peace, peace, peace, only peace. May it be peace. May peace reign in the world. Peace must reign between man and God and between men."

Precisely these words: peace must reign between God and man and between men themselves. Today more than ever they resonate in the world in which we live: peace between God and man and between men.

We have turned away from God. We have distanced ourselves from God, we have distanced ourselves from his love. We have become alone, abandoned. The Mother calls us: return to God, put God back in the first place in your life. Pray in your families, renew prayer in your families. It is precisely this evangelization that Our Lady has been offering us for forty years through her messages. She wants to lead us all to Jesus who is the truth, the way and the life.

I would like to start with a message that Our Lady gave a few years ago:

"Dear children, even today, as never before, I invite you to open your hearts to my messages. Children, be those who attract souls to God and not those who distance them. I am with you and I love you all with a special love. This is a time of penance and conversion. From the bottom of my heart I invite you: be mine with all your heart and then you will see that your God is great because he will give you an abundance of blessings and peace. Thank you for having responded to my call."

Look dear friends, Our Lady invites us to be those who attract souls to God that we are an instrument in the hands of God, a model in the hands of God: a model of evangelization. We are all called to be new apostles in this time in which we live, those who will evangelize today's world, who will bring people closer to God and to peace, to true peace, the peace of Christ. Because this world today cannot give us peace: only in God is there peace. Only He will give us peace.

Open our hearts to God and to Our Lady in these difficult times. Look at this pandemic time the world is going through, a very difficult time, but Mary is with us. We must open our hearts to her messages, to her words. We have to open our hearts. The mother cannot stop inviting, she cannot stop loving her children. The desire to encounter God and his love should arise from our hearts.

It remains for us to desire more strongly that meeting that will take place if we really desire it because God takes our desires and our prayers seriously. Without this desire of our heart, all maternal pleas and calls are in vain and a mother cannot help but invite, instruct, advise what is best for her children.

In one of her messages the Madonna says: "You dear children cannot do it alone so I am here to help you". We cannot do it alone, we do not know how to open the heart, nor do we know why it is closed. She gave her heart to God and for this she knows better what means are those that can help us.

Our Lady walked our same paths. She can teach us best because she herself has walked our paths, which we are walking today. Our Lady comes because she wants us to be there where she is. Jesus through Mary knocks on the door of our hearts today: "Behold, I am standing at the door and knocking. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will go in and dine with him and he with me". So the book of Revelation tells us. We must listen to God's voice and pray together.

To hear the Lord's knock on the door of our heart, it is necessary above all in this time of grace, to listen to the voice of God who speaks to us through his Word in sacred scripture through other people, through various events and situations of our life, through simple little things that happen to us every day.

It is important to open the eyes of our hearts and our spirits, to pray the Lord to open them for us. Therefore it is necessary to decide to read the Holy Scriptures at this time. To this Our Lady invites us so much: read Sacred Scripture, let it be food in our way of life, participate more often in Holy Mass, that it be at the center of your life.

God through Mary invites us to renunciation and brotherly love. Make a concrete decision to do good: cut the cords of attachment to evil, hatred, laziness, murmuring and any other evil. Through Mary, God also invites us to fast, to renounce, to fraternal love, to prayer to break our dependence on human strength, to bind us completely to himself. So when we are ruled by some vice, sin, lust or laziness, it is a sign that we are not yet free, but that we are under the dominion of sin.

Penance always means a new renunciation. Giving up means always taking away something we like. Avoid what evil offers us, do not offend others, do not allow every desire of our body to be fulfilled, do not try to take every pleasure; to give up is to become free. The fathers of the Church teach us: do what is contrary to your corrupt human nature, so that God in us can do his works of love and freedom. Dear friends, this time in which we live is a time of great grace, but at the same time of great

(Ivan's comments at the Medjugorje congress continued on page 7)

Sister Lucia on the Consecration of 1984

by Michael Brown from spiritdaily.com

Back during the 1990s, we were sent a pamphlet entitled “Two Hours With Sister Lucia”. It was generated by an interpreter whose address was given as St. Anne's Oratory in Fátima, Portugal, the transcription with many photographs of two meetings between famed seer Lucia dos Santos and two cardinals, a bishop, and a priest. What it contained was jarring: According to the detailed, time-stamped transcript, on October 11, 1992, during the first meeting, at the Carmel of St. Teresa Convent in Coimbra, Portugal, when asked by Cardinal Padiyara of Ernakulam, India, the loaded question of whether, on March 25, 1984, Pope Saint John Paul II had finally accomplished a key request of Our Lady — consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart, which she told the seers would bring about the conversion of that threatening, atheist empire — the seer replied (as if expecting the question): “Yes. Yes. Yes. The consecration was already partially done. Pope Pius XII made it in 1942, on October 31, but it lacked union with all the bishops of the world, which Pope John Paul II finally managed to unite in 1984.”

This was a bombshell. For decades, aficionados of Marian apparitions have debated whether indeed the requested consecration was properly carried out when, in 1984, John Paul II consecrated the “world,” but in the prayer did not specifically name “Russia.” Few controversies in the field have been quite as red-hot. It remains a controversy to this day. Apparently, the Vatican long had been wary of overt mention, which would be seen as stepping on Soviet toes during this tense period of Cold War.

Yet there on October 11, 1991, was the only living Fátima seer answering the question in a way that was as unequivocal as it has been ignored. Sister Lucia went on to explain that Paul VI had also made an attempt at consecration at the close of Vatican II, but that when she asked the Blessed Mother — who continued to appear or at least speak to her after the 1917 apparitions — Our Lady had said, “no,” that she had wanted the bishops to be in their own dioceses for the consecration (not all gathered at an event far from their flocks).

There was also an attempt at fulfilling the consecration, as spelled out at Fátima, by John Paul II in 1982 (at which Lucia was present), but this consecration lacked union with all the bishops, the seer told the cardinal. The 1984 consecration, on the other hand, had that union with bishops, said the seer, who with Bernadette of Lourdes and Juan Diego of Guadalupe is the most famous seer in the history of the Church and headed for all-but-certain sainthood.

Even though Russia was not mentioned by name, said the cloistered nun, “God knew that the Pope's intention was Russia,” as did the bishops. She told the cardinal, bishop, and priest that Our Lady never required that Russia be mentioned by name (the key sticking point in lingering controversies.)

Remarkably, just weeks after that consecration — on May 13, 1984, the Fátima anniversary — an explosion at the Soviets' Severomorsk Naval Base destroyed two-thirds of all the missiles stockpiled for the Soviets' Northern Fleet. It also destroyed workshops needed to maintain the missiles and killed hundreds of technicians. Western military experts called it the worst naval disaster the Soviet Navy had suffered since WWII. The consecration was also followed, in an even more astonishing way, with the collapse in 1988 of Communism in Poland, followed in 1989 by the fall of atheistic Communism in East Germany, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania, and Bulgaria. (Remember the “Berlin Wall” and the “Iron Curtain”?).

No state department specialist, no Ivy League academic, no political leader, and no television analyst would have dared to have predicted this. Within two years, Communism was falling in the Soviet Union itself: Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Ukraine, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan, followed by the fall of the Communist dictatorship in Russia. No one expected such a thing in his or her lifetime, never mind a few short years. Albania and Yugoslavia soon joined the others. Sister Lucia noted, during the 1992 meeting, that “the news speaks for itself.”

Sister Lucia, during such talks, specifically singled out a Canadian priest, Father Nicholas Gruner, who she said needed to be corrected. She further stated that the collapse of Communism in Soviet-held territories constituted a “period of peace” predicted during the apparitions if the consecration was accomplished. She said this peace pertained to the greatly lessened tensions between the Soviet Union (or now just “Russia”) and the rest of the world. It was a “period” of time that had been foreseen, she said — not an “era” (as many have interpreted the message).

Most remarkably, in a second meeting exactly a year later, on October 11, 1993, she reportedly told Cardinal Ricardo Vidal of the Philippines and eight others (including two priests) that “the consecration of 1984 prevented an atomic war that would have occurred in 1985.” She said the Triumph of Our Lady's Immaculate Heart had begun but was an “ongoing process.” As the Irish Democrat noted in a 1993 review of the translator's work, “This 32-page pamphlet detailing a precise and accurate two-hour interview with Sister Lucia in 1992 is a must for all devotees and others interested in the apparitions of Fátima. Clearly from this meticulously recorded interview, many of the abounding theories surrounding these protracted controversies can now be discarded.”

Sr. Lucia of Fatima with John Paul II

(Sister Emmanuel continued from page 3)

"Dear children, never in my life did I cry so much from pain as I weep tonight for joy. Thank you! Keep praying and fasting!" Then she added, "But remember, dear children, that tomorrow Satan will be out of his chains again!"

This episode, quite unique in the history of Medjugorje, is significant and prophetic. It is interesting to see what happens when the enemy cannot do anything... It is then that all of God's mercy can flow over his beloved children, without the obstacles that the enemy likes to put in our minds and hearts. God wants love and peace, but Satan wants hatred and war, as Mary makes clear. He hates mercy, and he inoculates us with his venom in a thousand ways to prevent us from throwing ourselves into the arms of God where we taste true peace! The fact that Satan was bound for 24 hours without being able to act is a great sign for the time we live in. If heaven allowed this, wasn't that in order to encourage us? Indeed, a day will come when our enemy, so active today, will be defeated, and defeated by a Woman, the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, she and her offspring (Revelation, Chapter 12:17). This episode can be seen as a dress rehearsal before the arrival of the "New time" that Heaven is preparing for us, "a time of peace that my heart looks forward to," Mary tells us.

- If Vicka asserts that "the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary is very close";

- If Marija asserts that "it has already begun" (we see the warning signs here and there in the world);

- If Ivan says that "when the secrets of Medjugorje are revealed, we will return to the faith of our fathers";

This means that the day when Satan will be bound is fast approaching, and it won't just be for 24 hours! It is up to us to hasten this victory of Mary, through our prayers, our fasting and our renunciations as she asks us to in her January message. It will then be a New Pentecost of love on the whole world. We cannot imagine the beauty of what awaits us!

While waiting for the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, let us cry out to Heaven for God to help us through the ordeal that is affecting the whole world. We are engaged in a war, where fear and despair want to prevail, so let us pick up the righteous weapons that Mary has given us over and over again for 40 years.

This Lent is a golden opportunity to take a stand for God and against Satan. To choose to put God first in our lives, and not give in to fear as if we were orphans without help and without a future. He is the Good Shepherd who takes care of his flock, ready to perform great miracles for his flock, miracles that are in line with the ordeal his people are going through. He makes himself available to everyone 24 hours a day, there is no curfew, he does not deceive us with false language, he loves and respects the elderly, he cherishes the life of each and every one of us, and he has a personal plan of salvation for each one of us. He cherishes every one of us as the apple of his eye (Psalm 17:8). Of course, he never promised us that it would be easy, but he promised bliss, the kind that lasts forever, IF we walk with Him. Let us not miss this IF! Lord Jesus, I surrender to you with infinite trust, it is in your hands that I have placed my life, I trust in your plan of love for my life!

Year of St. Joseph

Hail Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted
His only Son;

In you Mary placed her trust;
With you Christ became a man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father
And guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,

and defend us from every evil. Amen.

Prayer given in Rome on Dec 8th, 2020 By Pope Francis

(Fr. Petar continued from page 2)

According to my deepest conviction, in Medjugorje there is sufficient and valid evidence for the authenticity of the apparitions. You have just talked about conversions and healings. For a recognition, in addition to several other circumstances, two extraordinary healings that are scientifically documented are already sufficient. So far in Medjugorje we can list hundreds of healings. A doctor from Milan has already published three books on these healings.

Do you think there is a temporal connection between the apparitions of the Madonna in Medjugorje and the events in the former Yugoslavia and in Europe?

I believe that such a relationship exists. Our Lady did not come to Medjugorje by accident. On Jan 19th, 1982 a visionary told me that the Madonna had told her that communist totalitarianism (the dictatorship) would collapse. There would be a war, but Croatia would be free.

Our Lady invited us to pray so that this tragedy would not become so serious. But unfortunately we did not follow this invitation to prayer and conversion. Therefore we had to cry many tears before reaching freedom. In my opinion, everything would have taken place in a very different way if we had answered Our Lady's prayers.

A Perfect Gift!

A new Rosary Booklet with messages from Our Lady of Guadalupe, Lourdes, Fatima, Kibeho, Medjugorje and more.

Absolutely beautiful!

Give copies to your friends, families, and prayer group members.

5 copies for 25 dollars

10 copies for 40 dollars:
(postage included.)

Send check payable to The Mir Center of Western Colorado and mail to:

The Mir Center of Western Colorado
2574 Young Ct
Grand Junction, CO 81505

(Ivan's comments at the Medjugorje congress continued from page 4)

responsibility. Our Lady does not stop encouraging us. She knows that we cannot be harmed by those who hate us, but we can be harmed more by our lack of faith, love, friendship towards Jesus. We are responsible not only for our own life, but also for the lives of the people God has placed in our path. Our happiness also depends on the happiness of other people: we all try today, not tomorrow, to listen to the echo of the divine voice, as the desire of our heart.

Let us silence the noise and the voices with which we are occupied, those negative news, those catastrophes of the newspapers, of the radio and television, to feel the closeness and the warm heart of our Celestial Mother, who comes and brings us hope. She brings us hope, not fear. It does not bring a cataclysm, so as not to scare us with anything. Instead she comes as the Mother of hope, and with hope she wants to guide us. Let's hold onto her messages, let's live these messages. So that we all become partakers of God's plan that she has for us. Many times Our Lady has called us: "Pray for my intentions, pray for my projects that I want to carry out with the world, with all of you. I need you. With you I can carry out those projects: decide for the good and fight against evil, against sin".

Dear friends, today's world is going through its serious crises: the greatest crisis is the crisis of faith in God, because we have distanced ourselves from God, we have distanced ourselves from his love, from his goodness. Today's world and humanity want to go to a future without God, dwelling on all those earthly things that the world offers us. Our Lady invites us: decide for God. If we want the Church to be strong today, we must be strong, strong in faith. Therefore I invite you all, dear friends: let us unite in prayer, let us welcome the messages of Our Lady, so that we can participate in a new world. A world worthy of God's children.

We welcome the messages of Our Lady and are active in the evangelization of this world, of the Church, of the family, of young people. Especially young people: we must be a model ourselves. A model for which the Madonna can rejoice. We must move from words to deeds, because today's world does not need words but deeds. I will pray for all of you in a special way. I will recommend you all and pray with the Mother. And finally, dear friends, may Our Lady's messages of peace, conversion, prayer and penance of firm faith, love, hope, the Eucharist, make us accept and live these messages. And don't be afraid! Our Lady calls all of us to be a living sign, a sign of living faith, a sign of goodness, a sign to live what Our Lady brings us to. She invites and calls us with hope. May Mary accompany you on your journey, bless you and pray to her son for all of you. Queen of Peace, pray for us".

Aren't the messages of Our Lady too good to keep to yourself? Isn't there a friend or relative that you'd like to add to our mailing list? There is no charge for "Our Lady's Monthly Messenger", but donations are accepted. Please Note: if you add more than 2 names, please consider a donation of 20 dollars per name per year. Make checks payable to: The Mir Center. And please, no overseas orders... Thanks and God Bless!

(Please Print)

Name: _____

Street Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Mail to:

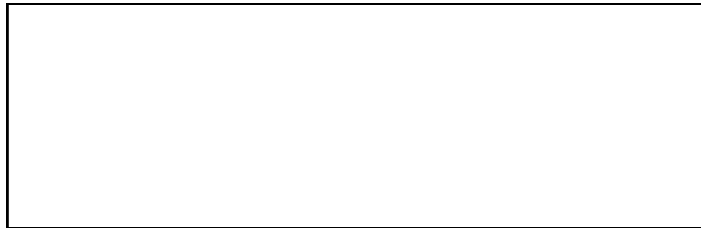

The Mir Center of Western Colorado
2574 Young Court
Grand Junction, CO 81505

March

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
	1	2 Medjugorje prayer group 7:00pm St. Francis	3	4	5	6
7	8	9 Medjugorje prayer group 7:00pm St Francis	10	11	12	13
14	15	16 Medjugorje prayer group 7:00pm St Francis	17	18	19 Solemnity of St. Joseph	20
21	22	23 Medjugorje prayer group 7:00pm St Francis	24	25 The Annunciation	26	27
28 Palm Sunday	29	30 Medjugorje prayer group 7:00pm St Francis	31

Upcoming events:

- + Solemnity of St. Joseph, March 19th
- + The Annunciation, March 25th
- + Palm Sunday, March 28th

Our Lady's Five-Point Program
 *Conversion
 *Prayer
 *Fasting
 *Peace
 *Reconciliation

Return Service Requested

The Mir Center of Western Colorado
 2574 Young Court
 Grand Junction, CO 81505

Non-Profit Org
 US Postage Paid
 Permit No. 36
 Grand Junction, CO

If you would like to be removed from our mailing list, please let us know...

Our primary goal, our main focus, is to bring Jesus Christ to the world and to bring the world to Jesus Christ. To accomplish this task, the MIR Center of Western Colorado was established to provide accurate information about the messages and events originating from Marian apparitions occurring in Medjugorje and elsewhere. We are committed to living and sharing the messages of Medjugorje and helping others to live the messages as well. By living the messages of Medjugorje, which are in essence the message of the Gospel, we hope to spread peace into our families, into our communities, and into our world. As a nonprofit organization, we intend to use any and all funds raised or donations received to aid in spreading the messages of Our Lady to all who will listen. With regard to the apparitions occurring in the world today we humbly submit to the final authority of the Catholic Church.

MISSION STATEMENT