OUR LADY'S MONTHLY MESSENGER

THE MIR CENTER OF WESTERN COLORADO

Vol. 24, No. 7

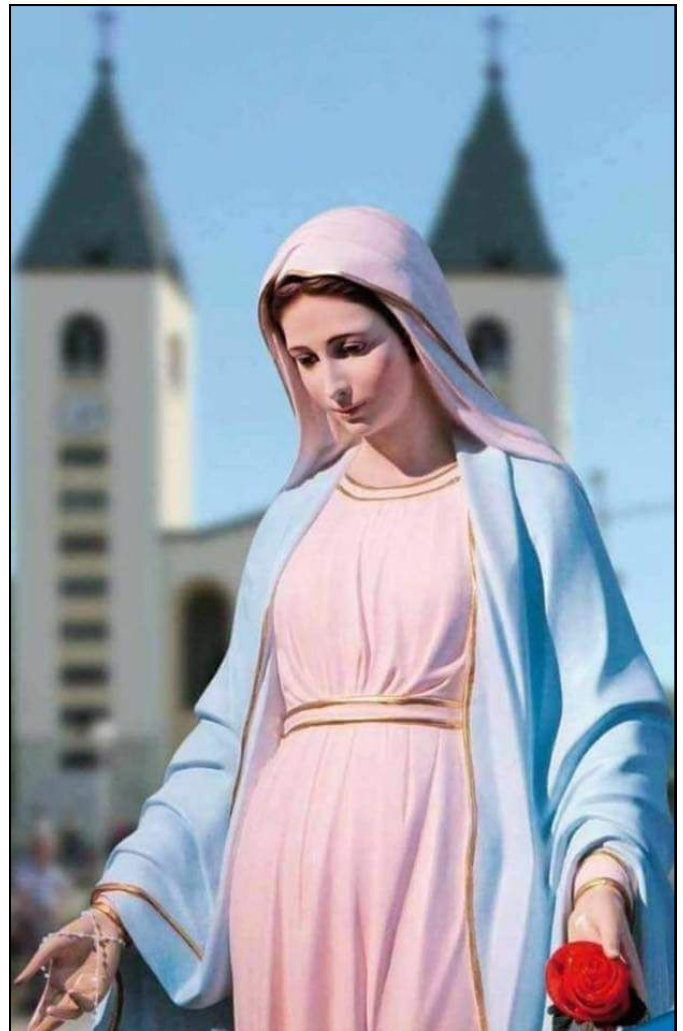

July, 2020

Consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it... (Rom 8: 18-20)

Our Lady of Medjugorje's Monthly Message of June 25th, 2020:

Dear children! I am listening to your cries and prayers, and am interceding for you before my Son Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Return, little children, to prayer and open your hearts in this time of grace and set out on the way of conversion. Your life is passing and, without God, does not have meaning. This is why I am with you to lead you towards holiness of life, so that each of you may discover the joy of living. I love you all, little children, and am blessing you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call.

On the 25th of each month, Our Lady gives a message through the visionary Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti for the villagers in the parish of Medjugorje and for all those who choose to follow her on the path to holiness.

The Healing of the Blind Man

One of the first miracles of Medjugorje

From: Observe the Fruits as recounted by Fr. Jozo Zovko

I remember the blind man, named Jozo, who had no difficulty regarding what happened, he had no question to ask. He immediately believed. Being blind, he told his granddaughter: Bring me something from the place where the Madonna appears. The little girl, a little girl of just six, tells him: "Grandpa, there is nothing on the hill." "But you will find something, insists the grandfather."

The child on the hill took a stone, a little bit of earth and kept everything in her left hand. She brought it home and put it in the blind man's hand, saying: "Here, grandfather, I brought you this from the place where the Madonna appears." The old man closed the pebble and the little bit of earth in his hand, and all night he watched and prayed. In the morning, when it was time to wash in the usual basin, he put everything in the water that became so dirty. He washed his eyes and said to his wife: I see you! She, a poor, suffering one, who has been assisting her husband for many years, cannot believe.

The husband tries to convince her and meanwhile looking at his hands he exclaims: "But where are my wounds?"

When his wife saw that the sores had disappeared, she became very happy and ran out of the house shouting: "My husband is cured!... My husband is cured!"

What happened after? A great gift and a miracle! The whole village came to see the restored man; the Bishop also came full of enthusiasm with the priests; journalists came, they photographed it and then they published that the Madonna healed the man. The police immediately started persecuting the blind man, his wife, the visionaries and others. They went to the blind man and told him to tell everyone he was always healthy. But he replied: "I cannot say so, because the Lord may give me that suffering again if I don't tell the truth."

Afterwards, they went to the visionaries and told them not to say anything if they didn't want to go to prison with their parents. The visionaries replied: "All right, let's go to prison, but we can't keep silent because Our Lady told us to testify!"

I must confess my weakness: When I went to confess that man or to bring him communion, I could not even look at his wounded hands. He had them in plastic gloves to contain the blood which was coming out continuously. Even his son, a dermatologist in Canada, could not help his father. A great suffering. And now, he was cured!

Sister Emmanuel's Letter

Reminder of Our Lady's message of May 25th, 2020, entrusted to Marija Pavlovic-Lunetti for the world:

"Dear children! Pray with me for a new life for all of you. In your hearts, little children, you know what needs to be changed. Return to God and His Commandments, so that the Holy Spirit may change your lives and the face of this earth, which is in need of renewal in the Spirit. Little children, be prayer for all those who do not pray; be joy for all those who do not see the way out; be carriers of light in the darkness of this peaceless time. Pray and seek the help and protection of the saints so that you also could yearn for Heaven and Heavenly realities. I am with you and am protecting and blessing all of you with my motherly blessing. Thank you for having responded to my call."

Corpus Christi

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, it was a truly joyful occasion to be able to follow Jesus, exposed in the Blessed Sacrament, through the village of Medjugorje! Many Croatians came to participate in this procession, which warmed our hearts! To finally be able to get together again was beautiful!

The 39th Anniversary

We are approaching the 39th anniversary of the apparitions! The visionaries, Marija and Ivan have already arrived! As the borders of Bosnia-Herzegovina will only open on July 1st to non-nationals, this will be a very modest Anniversary celebration, but we know that so many of the Gospa's devotees in the world are in communion with us, and lovingly prepare Mary's favorite gifts to offer her during this novena! Our prayers are especially necessary today, for on the summer solstice (June 21), all over the world, the enemies of the Lord and his Church joined together in their cults and other 'ceremonies' to glorify their miserable master. Let us pray that the "Woman clothed with the Sun" will protect us and hasten her Son's victory over all evil.

Fear - a positive springboard!

During these past months, fear has increased significantly in many people around the world. If, as St. Paul says, "love banishes fear," it is worth examining this issue, because we want to live with love, and not fear!

Sister Emmanuel

In reality, fear is innate in man, it is part of our nature, ever since the eruption of sin. Adam was the first to express it, after the Fall: "I was afraid, because I was naked and I hid myself" (Gen 3:10). And what did God do? He placed a barrier between evil (the snake) and man: He made the snake "crawl on his belly", preventing it from attacking man head-on, and made an incredible promise to man: "I will put enmity between you (the snake) and the woman. This one will crush your head." (Gen 3:15). Fear, which henceforth became part of the human condition, is therefore at the same time a constant call to take refuge in the goodness of God who is Father. So it is not a matter of denying fear or feeling guilty about it, but of using it wisely and channeling it in order to subject it to the grace of God. In short, let us not allow fear to dominate us to the point of it enslaving us. It would be terrible to let it determine our choices and poison our existence.

We currently have many reasons to be afraid, we just have to look at the world and the many threats hanging over it. My point is not to list these threats and failures of all kinds - they are already quite visible to everyone. My point is rather to look with you at how the Saints managed to direct their fears and turn them into victories. The Saints are magnificent in their teachings, and the Holy Mother of God urges us to read their lives for a reason!

From the beginning of his pontificate, Saint John Paul II told us, 'Do not be afraid!'. He was a mystic who saw the threats that we are much more acquainted with now. But he never stopped giving us reason to hope, for 'Jesus conquered the world'. We may have good reasons to be afraid, but we have no reason to give in to fear. That is the genius of the Saints, they remained free from all fear. They refused to remain frozen in the web of fear and become slaves to it. And this freedom of heart is a treasure that Jesus wants to give to every Christian, to all those who want to follow Him in truth. It is up to us to accept this treasure - as Mary says, to decide - and to work on it day by day, with humility and tenacity. It is really a matter of following the Shepherd, the best of shepherds, the One who came to make us free.

One of the great temptations, when one is afraid, is to withdraw into oneself; but cutting oneself off from others prevents love from flourishing. When training the young people in the prayer group, the Blessed Mother strongly emphasized this point. When you withdraw into solitude, you may think that you are protected, but this is an illusion. What happens is just the opposite, you cut yourself off from the source of love, you start to wither and risk sinking into sadness. Our hearts are created to love, so if the oxygen of the Holy Spirit is lacking, then we risk asphyxiation. From there spring so many evils... What a pity to miss the great happiness of forming one body together, the body of Christ where love circulates!

How should we react when we are scared? The Saints teach us to look at Jesus, the source of our life, our peace and all true love. That is the key! Jesus himself looks at us constantly, with a gaze that is full of life and overwhelming love, and if we respond to His gaze, then we let His own soul transform us and little by little, we regain peace and courage. This is the fruit of prayer.

Why Our Lady Appears in Medjugorje

By Padre Giulio Maria Scozzaro

Why does Our Lady appear in Medjugorje? The attack of Satan against humanity and against the Catholic Church has become ruthless in the past decades, many and strange facts have happened in the world to arouse apprehension in many people. This is why the apparition of the Virgin Mary appeared in Medjugorje, a development considered true and extraordinary also by many Cardinals and Bishops.

If we still believe in the Gospel, we cannot deny that Satan is the tempter and perverter of humanity. He fights with all his strength and his damned demonic intuitions to withdraw us from Jesus and throw us into despair and then into hell. He does not remain still even for a moment, he thinks, plans and acts to hit us at the weakest point and thus destroy our resistance. Above all, he tries to weaken us by distracting us from prayer, inspiring us to many things, even sometimes good ones, so as not to make us pray anymore.

In this regard we read this message: "When you feel weakness in your prayer, do not stop but continue to pray with all your heart. And do not pay attention to the body, but gather yourself completely in your spirit. Pray with even greater strength so that your body does not win over the spirit and your prayer is not empty. All of you who feel feeble in prayer, pray more ardently, fight and meditate on what you pray for. Do not let any thought deceive you in prayer. Remove all thoughts, except those that unite Me and Jesus to you." (Feb. 27, 1985).

It is a clear message about the action of Satan towards the weak, those who pray little or badly and are incapable of governing the thoughts that come to mind, of discerning and intuiting the origin of an idea, so as to be conditioned by any thought that arrives into the mind.

Many of the thoughts that come to our mind are temptations of Satan and distract us, make prayer empty, without love and trust. We know that Satan never rests. Our thoughts also come from Satan, he is the main deviator of our Faith, it is he who always wants to distance us from the truth of the Gospel. But there is also our human spirit to give us sensations contrary to the truth, if we live our Faith with little fidelity.

Whoever has the Spirit of God, reads the signs of these times with ease, realizes that the world is now in the hands of Satan; instead, those who do not have the Spirit of God do not understand the terrors Satan is preparing against humanity. It seems that everything goes well, indeed, never gone better because this life is a real pleasure, you can satisfy every pleasure, every instinct that comes to mind.

In those people in whom Satan is master, strong anger is born mixed with hatred against Medjugorje and against Our Lady, they come to utter heavy insults against the Mother of God, only because she comes to call us back to the fidelity of the Gospel and to tell us that Jesus calls us to conversion and to his commandments. Yet, many people who condemn the apparitions of the Madonna are Catholic.

Satan and all the devils are unleashed against humanity and try to destroy all that is possible. Their murderous fury transmits hatred in all those who are not protected by the Madonna, and this also applies to the consecrated. And where there is hatred, Our Lady came to talk to us about the Love of Jesus and to invite us to forgiveness. "Love, love! Jesus easily converts people if you love. Love you too: this is how you change the world!" (February 23, 1985).

In people without the Grace of God, there is a greater inclination to malice and transgression, to malice, to use every form of disloyalty to get what they want. This rule does not apply to all non-believers or indifferent believers. But in many cases it is so. In one way or another, even if for one situation only and not for all those in which they are involved. But it is enough to run into a negative situation with those who do not love or who love bad things, to suffer moral, spiritual and physical damages.

We find ourselves involved in an incredible spiritual war between the forces of good and the forces of evil. In the end, the good will always win, but in the meantime the disturbance caused by the satanic forces will have caused suffering and will make the good people suffer enormously, millions and millions of human beings. The persecutions against the Catholic Church and the followers of Christ, the strange and incurable diseases, the wars caused by Satan will have been innumerable in the meantime. To understand well this outburst of Satan, the danger of the betrayal of many baptized in the Catholic Church, the emptying of morals, we must read the book of the Apocalypse. Everything is explained there, even the ardent plan of Satan against God. It is a real war at the level of spirits, as never happened before, so much so that it is described in the book of the Apocalypse.

To carry out this evil plan, Satan has created an immense team of scoundrels and wretches, operating in many sectors of public life, many of whom occupy seats of authority.

For this criminal plan of Satan, hell broke out against the Catholic Church, so many evil forces of the earth gathered, joining in for a common project: to destroy the Catholic Church. Here is the birth of communism in the last century, the spread in the world of the errors and falsities of the most false and diabolical ideology in human history. The de-Christianization of the world is the project of Satan, carried forward by the occult powers. The Catholic Church today finds itself struggling against some billions of people, all of whom are subjected to the service of Satan. Whoever inspires, prepares and sends false prophets to the world it is always Satan.

Knowing the irreversible refusal of the Angels who have become demons for their rebellion due to pride and disobedience, we can better understand the mortal hatred and the maximum restlessness of the demons against each of us. Not being able to strike God, in revenge they strike at all of us, because we are moving towards Heaven, while for the demons Paradise will be eternally inaccessible.

Satan today dominates the world with his spirit of pride and rebellion, he dominates over all those who do not pray and live in sins and in continuous immoral amusements. He dominates in many hearts full of hatred, revenge, malice, blasphemy against God and every form of good. Thus, Satan is bringing an immense number of people on the road to damnation, sin, boundless pleasure, disobedience to the Law of God, rejection of all that is sacred.

Satan has convinced millions of Catholics that sin is no longer an evil, and so it is justified and committed without regret and so they no longer confess anymore. Many who until recently preached the gravity of sin, today justify it, bringing millions of faithful to live in grave sins and not to confess them. An intellectual transformation has incredibly been fulfilled, due to the lack of true prayer and to moral relaxation.

If sin was first considered an offense to God, today it is no longer so, but freedom, a conquest. This way of reasoning is the same as how Satan reasons. He hates the truth. For this reason Our Lady said that “Satan makes fun of you and your souls” (March 25, 1992).

Our Lady in the Light of God knows everything, the whole future is present to her, she knows the good and those who want to destroy humanity, because they put themselves at the service of the first world impostor: Satan. This is what Our Lady said on March 25, 1993: “Dear children, today as never before I invite you to pray for peace: peace in your hearts, peace in your families and peace in the whole world; because Satan wants war, he wants the lack of peace and he wants to destroy all that is good. Therefore dear children pray, pray, pray. Thank you for having responded to my call!”

And if someone complains because he does not receive help from the Madonna, meditate well on her words: “I cannot help you because you are far from my Heart. Therefore pray and live my messages and then you will see the miracles of God’s love in your daily life” (March 25, 1992).

And in front of this corrupt mentality that calls into question the appearances at Medjugorje, is always Satan, the enemy of man, hatred personified, the adversary of Good. If Our Lady had not reminded humanity that Satan exists, that he wants to destroy the Church, the world and all of us, who would even remember anymore Satan? In a message of 26 July 1983, Our Lady said: “Watch! This is a dangerous time for you. Satan will try to take you away from this path. Those who give themselves to God always suffer the attacks of Satan.”

And how many times she has spoken of Satan, of his perfidious plots, of his evil cunning, of his tireless action against every human being, above all against those close to Jesus and to the Virgin Mary, therefore, against those who most likely will be saved and go to Heaven.

Why do so many villains live well? Is it Jesus who helps them? Clearly this is not the case. For the immoral or dishonest life they lead, these people are heading towards hell, they are already in the possession of Satan, they will hardly convert. Why would Satan disturb his followers and worshipers? No, then maybe they would start praying and converting. Just so, he leaves them calm now, and then in hell he will give those torments he did not give here and all the torments they deserve for having fallen into hell. And do you know what happens to two people who loved each other on earth to the point of madness and then both end up in hell? There they hate each other to death, because in hell there is no love, only hatred and endless torments.

Marija Reflects on the Apparitions of Our Lady

By Cathy Nolan from Marytv.tv

On June 21, 2020, Marija Pavlovic Lunetti was at the original apparition site with some of the guides and local people, and she shared a little bit from her heart about this anniversary and what it means for us. Here are her words:

“I want all of you to hear that holiness is possible. We have examples that we have known and hugged. Many of those people who today are in heaven. We pray for their intercession. We have had the wonderful support, and example of St. John Paul II whose motto was “Totally Yours”.

Also in a small way, but truthfully in a big way, Fr Skavko Barbaric, whom I pray to everyday. He was my first confessor and great support that each day I could become stronger through confession and counsel. He said to me: “But Marija, you are chosen! Don’t allow trials to suppress you! He always said to me, “But you are chosen!” This means we are all chosen! Our Lady chose all of us, chose us and said, “I chose Medugorje!” We can’t say Medugorje is mine or I am Medugorje. Medugorje is Our Lady’s! If it wasn’t for Our Lady, Medugorje would be nothing. We are no one and nothing.

Our Lady takes us higher and higher towards heaven! Our Lady loves us. Today she loves us, she has not abandoned us, she is with us. She repeats that she will not allow the devil to reign. So, pray! Be courageous! Be missionaries there in the place God has placed you! Encourage one another in holiness!

Just please do not forget this one thing, that God, through Our Lady, will triumph! May God bless you and may Our Lady give you all strength so that each day you will become stronger and stronger and become dear joyful missionaries of Our Lady. May God bless you and Our Lady look after you! Amen.”

We can take great solace in Marija’s words. God the Father will triumph through Our Lady! He will win!! She will win!! Our enemy will be defeated!! We can be joyful missionaries of Our Lady of Medjugorje!! There is such hope and joy!

Instead of being fixated on the raging storm, we lift it up to the One who has the power to calm the storm. "Why are you afraid?" asked Jesus to the apostles who were in real danger of perishing at sea. That was their mistake. They were looking at the huge waves instead of looking at Jesus who was with them. To be or not to be with Jesus, that is what makes the difference. Jesus may test us - and He does - but it is always for a greater good, for our salvation. He does not want to see us sink!

Trusting in his love is what will drive this change for us, moving us from a visceral fear (humanly justified), to a liberation of the heart. God only wants our good, in all circumstances. When we turn to Him with trust and total faith, He raises our hearts in such a way that we no longer depend on our visceral reactions, but on a supernatural grace - above the natural - that allows our soul to taste a deep peace, that "peace of God that surpasses all understanding," as St Paul describes it. We let the Holy Spirit take over and that is how this evil thing called fear becomes a real springboard that can lift us up to God, enrich us through Him and sanctify us.

You may be afraid without knowing why. In that case, instead of hiding from it, it is better to face your fear directly, and to ask: what am I afraid of? Becoming ill? Experiencing hunger? Being betrayed by a friend/ relative? What would happen if this fear came true? What damage would that do? This is an opportunity to entrust to the Lord your real fear, very precisely and concretely, so that this reality now belongs to Him, not you. That is also what it means to confidently consecrate our whole being to Him. And what a relief that is!

When we fully surrender to God in our trials, we overcome all fear. God allows us to be tested (whether we are Christian or not), because in every trial experienced positively with Him and offered up, we grow in holiness and we help the Savior to save many souls that walk in darkness. Furthermore, by offering our sufferings, we give God the deep joy of preparing new diamonds for our eternal crown. In other words, we allow him to cast upon us the waterfalls of his love and the infinite happiness that comes with it, in this world and in the next. Aren't Saints the happiest of all people? Why? Because even in the midst of their tribulations, their hearts rested in God, and remained united to the One who is love itself. This love is the dream and full realization of every human being created in the image of God who is Love.

Here are some examples: Sister Faustina was fearful by nature. She herself wrote in her Little Diary that she was afraid of people. But she did not back down from the obstacles, focusing her gaze on Jesus. "Oh! I am not afraid of anything. If God sends to the soul such a great torment, He sustains it with an even greater grace, even though we do not realize it. In such moments, an act of trust restores to God more glory than all the hours spent in prayer, filled with consolation." (Diary, 78)

"I am not afraid of anything when I am with You, O Jesus, for nothing can harm me". (Diary 306)

Her confidence in Jesus became manifest when danger threatened. She said, "I was in a hurry to get home. I took a few steps, but a lot of demons blocked my path. They threatened me with terrible torment and voices were heard: 'She took away everything we have worked for so many years.' When I asked them,

'Where are you from, in such large numbers?' The accursed answered me: "From human hearts; don't torment us!" Seeing their terrible hatred against me, I immediately called upon my Guardian Angel for help, and immediately his clear and radiant appearance stood by me. He said to me, 'Don't be afraid, bride of my Lord. Without His permission, these spirits will not hurt you.' Immediately, the evil spirits disappeared, and the faithful Guardian Angel accompanied me in a visible manner, to the threshold of the house. His gaze was modest and peaceful; a ray of fire gushed from his forehead. O Jesus, I would desire to suffer torment and pain for the rest of my life, for this one moment in which I experience, Lord, Your glory and the salvation of souls." (Diary 418, 419)

"I am not afraid of blows, for God is my shield. It is the enemy who should be afraid of us, not us of him. Satan only wins victories over the proud and the cowardly, for the humble are strong. Nothing will confuse or frighten a humble soul. Such a soul is flying straight for the blaze of the sun and nothing will stop it. Love does not allow itself to be imprisoned, it is free as a king." (Diary 450)

These words remind me of a conversation with Don Gabriele Amorth, a prominent exorcist from Rome: "Don Gabriele", I asked him, "when faced with serious cases of possession, are you not afraid that Satan will jump on you and hurt you?" "No," he replied, "I have never been afraid of Satan, he is afraid of me!"

Faustina: "On Friday evening, during the rosary, thinking of tomorrow's journey and the seriousness of the business I was to present to Father Andrasz, I became fearful at the sight of my miserableness, my incapacity and the greatness of God's work. Crushed by this suffering, I surrendered myself to the divine will. At that moment, I saw Jesus in a light tunic, near my prayer desk. He said to me, 'Why are you afraid to do My will? Am I not going to help you like I have done so far?'" (Diary, 489).

When fear wants to impose itself, the way out is to give this fear to Jesus! Give it away, again and again... "What are you afraid of? If you are with me, who would dare touch you? However, I am very happy that you are giving me your concerns. My daughter, tell me about everything, very simply, you will please me greatly. I understand you because I am God and man. This simple conversation of your heart is more pleasant to me than hymns composed in my honor. Know, my daughter, that the simpler your words are, the more you draw me to you!" (Diary, 796)

Afraid of the unknown? Afraid of an uncertain future? Afraid of losing what we care about? Jesus did not give us any false consolations by saying that we will not lose anything, but He promises we will never lose the only true treasure, Himself, if we dive into Him, "Sin will reign, Mary told us recently, but if you are mine, your refuge will be the Heart of my Son Jesus!" (25 /8/19)

Jesus to St Faustina: "Do not scrutinize with any curiosity the paths along which I lead you! When boredom and discouragement threaten your heart, run away from yourself and hide in my Heart! Don't be afraid of battle: courage alone often intimidates the tempter and he doesn't dare attack us! Always fight with the deep conviction that I am close to you! Do not let feeling dominate you, because it isn't always in your power! It is in the will that all the credit lies... Get ready for big fights! Fight like a knight so I can reward you! Do not be too afraid, because you are not alone! (Diary 1760)

The only fear we must have is that of being separated from God, of not loving. That of not following Jesus and finding ourselves without a shepherd. That of missing out on the incredible treasure set aside for us if we decide to follow Jesus, humble and poor, and to live his Word and to trust Him. That of not accepting what His Providence places on our path. Because then the danger we face is real! The Blessed Mother knows our fears! "Dear children, in these days you have felt how Satan acts. I am always with you. Do not be afraid of trials because God is always watching over you. I have given myself to you and I empathize with you, even in the smallest temptations." (8/19/84)

How can we not think that Mary, seeing her Son leave for His Passion, did she not experience fear? How could she not have trembled? She knew in advance what was going to happen to her, for she knew the Scriptures, and Jesus himself had hidden nothing from her. But this fear did not stop her, for she had offered everything ahead to the Father, for the fulfillment of the Son's mission: to save humanity from the power of death. She may have felt fear, as we do, but she offered it to the Father, and in doing so she helped Jesus in his mission. She overcame her fear, which became a springboard for more love and power in her vocation as Co-redemptrix. Having given everything to God, she had nothing to lose. "He who prays is not afraid of the future, and he who fasts is not afraid of evil."

"Dear children, today I invite you to total surrender to God. Everything you do and everything you own, give it to God so that he may reign over your life like a King over everything you possess... Little children, do not be afraid, for I am with you, even when you think that there is no way out and that Satan reigns. I bring you peace. I am your Mother and the Queen of Peace." (8/25/88)

"Love, and do not be afraid, because, my children, there is no fear in love. If your hearts are open to the Father and they are full of love for Him, why be afraid of what is coming? Fear those who do not love because they are waiting for punishment, and they know how empty and hard they are. As children, I guide you to love, to the dear Father. I guide you to eternal life. Eternal life is my Son. Receive Him and you have received love." (25 Sept 2001)

MISSION STATEMENT

The MIR Center of Western Colorado was established to provide accurate information about the messages and events originating from Marian apparitions occurring in Medjugorje and helping others to live the messages as well. By living the messages of Medjugorje, which are in essence the message of the Gospel, we hope to spread peace into our families, into our communities, and into our world. As a nonprofit organization, we intend to use any and all funds raised or donations received to aid in spreading the messages of Our Lady to all who will listen. With regard to the apparitions occurring in the world today we humbly submit to the final authority of the Catholic Church.
